
Morterra - a local band!

Hey guys! I'd like to tell you all about a band called Morterra, from my town of Burlington.

They're a death metal band that's been doing shows for about a year now, and they've got a demo out. I had the pleasure of seeing them live a few weeks ago at a Battle of the Bands contest - fuckin' crazy!

www.purevolume.com/morterra --> Purevolume page

<http://www.audiri.com/morterra> --> more songs (including a LIVE recording :D)

They're gonna be playing the Burlington Youthfest this year (May 6th), so if you're in the area, go check 'em out!

Seen this band too - seriously really, really, REALLY good. All decent songs, but the best by far is Prison, in my opinion... These guys really won't be around Burlington for long.
