This is a local band here in Eville NY. But I've heard them here on the LOOP. Any of the DJ's I've asked to play it say they dont have it. Check them out.<http://profile.myspace.com/index.cfm?fuseaction=user.viewprofile&friendid=631855:evil: :evil: :evil:>

Who have you asked for DJ's???....A bunch of us have Haunted By Angels stuff because they were good enough to be part of our old Homegrown Show....They also went so far as to auction one of their bass guitars on EBay where they used half of the final sale price as a donation to the station.....HBA will always have ou support

They recently obtained a new singer....I can't wait to hear new stuff from them in the near future.....Everyone that we've met regarding this band (past members included) have been class acts.

I asked hobs & wasted zombie cant remember who else.Their all great . The lead geet player (Andy Wheeler) is a friend of mine . Andy's a kick as geet thec too. He's done all the set up on my gibsons turned them into super shredder axes. The new stuff with Tania will blow you away. Their hope'n to start play'n some gigs in June I wait to see them back out !!

DarkLord is a brand new DJ....so it's not surprising that he doesn't have anything by them....I thought Hobs and Zonbie had their stuff
